

Driver Licenses for Adults

If you want to drive a car, you must have a California driver license from the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV). To get the license you need to:

- Be eighteen (18) years of age
- Visit a DMV office (make an appointment for faster service)
- Complete application form DL 44
- Give a thumb print
- Have your picture taken
- Provide your social security number.
- Provide proof of your birth date and legal presence
- Provide your true full name
- Pay the $25 application fee
- Pass a vision exam
- Pass a traffic laws and sign test. There are 36 questions on the test. You have three chances to pass.

If you pass the tests, you will get a "Provisional Permit." You then must pass a "behind the wheel" driving test and will be given a temporary license until the license arrives in the mail. The license is good for a period of four (4) years, after which the driver license will need to be renewed.
